Notwithstanding anything herein, the foregoing is without prejudice to the fact that OW may establish specific case-by-case conditions which regulate the use, provision and/or contracting of products or services which are offered to Users through the Website. In any case, those specific conditions will form an integral part of this Legal Notice.

Performance by the User of any single act among the following will constitute acceptance without reservation of each and every one of the rules found in this Legal Notice and will be taken as consideration on the part of the User: a) accessing the Website, b) filling out forms through the Website, c) sending requests for information or complaints, d) accepting employment/contractual offers or subscriptions, and e) in general, all acts of a similar nature to those carried out when filling out forms and/or when contacting via email addresses published on the Website. 3. WEBSITE USE AND ACCESS

Access to the Website by the Users is free. However, the use, provision and/or contracting of the products and services which may be offered by OW may be subject to the previous acceptance of formal requisites such as the filling out of corresponding forms, payment of fees and costs and/or the previous acceptance of specific conditions which apply to the same.

Merely accessing the Website does not imply the establishment of any link or commercial relationship between OW and the User, except where the appropriate means have been established and the User has previously complied with the requisites which are established.

Information on the Website relating to products or services offered by OW is solely for information and advertising purposes, unless otherwise stated.

If for the use, provision and/or contracting of a product or service offered through the Website, the User is obliged to register, he/she will be under an obligation to provide accurate information, guaranteeing the authenticity of all the data provided at the time of filling out the pre-established forms required to access the corresponding products or services. If, as a result of the User's registration, a password is issued, the User thereby is bound to use it diligently and to keep such password secret. Consequently, Users will be responsible for the adequate custody and confidentiality of all identifying data and/or passwords and are bound to not allow or facilitate their use by third parties, be it temporarily or permanently, nor to provide access to others. The use and/or contracting of products or services by third parties acquired due to a fault or negligent use or misuse of a password given to the User and/or the loss of the password by the User will be entirely the responsibility of the User.

Furthermore, it is the User's duty to immediately notify OW of any circumstances which may lead to the improper use of identifying data and/or passwords, such as theft, loss or non-authorized access, so that OW can proceed with prompt cancellation. Without limitation to any other provision hereof, for the duration of any such period during which any such circumstances are not communicated to OW, OW will be exempt from any responsibility which could derive from the improper use of the identifying data or use or misuse of passwords by third parties.

In all cases, the access, navigation and use of the Website, and the use or contracting of the services or products offered through the Website, is the sole and exclusive responsibility of the User. The User is therefore bound to diligently and faithfully observe any additional instructions given by OW or by OW's authorized employees in relation to the Website's use and its contents.
